FasTrak signs MOU with Coach O Enterprises

(Houston, TX. June 25, 2020)

FasTrak Athletix is proud to announce the establishment of a partnership with Coach O Enterprises to conduct two youth-oriented indoor track and field events for the upcoming indoor season each licensed by AAU. The meets are scheduled to be held at the FasTrak facility located on the campus of the University of Houston. It is anticipated that hundreds of young track and field enthusiasts will be partaking in each meet, the exact dates of which to be released shortly.

Steve McBride, General Manager of FasTrak expressed his delight in partnering with the legendary Coach O (Charles Oliver). “Having the opportunity to put on youth track and field competitions with the absolute master of such events is an honor and great opportunity for FasTrak Athletix. Coach O commands international respect for his dedication to our youth and the way he runs his meets. The combination of our two organizations and resources portends a bright future for indoor track and field in the southwest.

Coach O looks forward to the relationship and potential of the sport working with FasTrak stating, “I am very excited about this partnership. It is my belief that with the resources of Coach O and FasTrak Athletix, we will have an increased ability to promote the growth and development of track and field nationally and internationally.”
