High schooler Gabe Gilfillan sets Nation's best pole vault mark at the FasTrak High School Championship

(Houston, TX. February 8, 2020)

Gabriel Gilfillan established the best high school pole vault mark in the country for 2020 jumping 5.33M (17' 5") at the FasTrak High School Championships in Houston this past Saturday.

Gilfillan, a senior at Corsicana high school and competing unattached, achieved the mark on his second attempt. He is a scholarship commit to the formidable track and field program of Stephen F. Austin under the leadership of Phil Olson and renowned pole vault coach Jeff Erikson.

FasTrak's General Manager, Steve McBride, is quoted as saying: "This was the inaugural FasTrak High School Championship and we look to quickly grow this meet into one of the premier indoor high school meets in the nation. Gabe's amazing effort provided us a fantastic jump start to this objective."
